Processional Hymn

Congregation

Here I Am, Lord

Refrain

Here I am, Lord. It is I Lord.
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

Verses

I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright,
Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

Refrain

I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them: they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone, give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send?

Refrain

Whatsoever You Do

Refrain

Whatsoever you do to the least of my people,
that you do unto me.

Verses

When I was hungry you gave me to eat,
When I was thirsty you gave me to drink.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

Refrain

When I was homeless and strange in this land,
Searching for kindness, you held out your hand.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

Refrain

When in a prison you bothered to heed,
When on a sick-bed, you cared for my need.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

Refrain

When I was aged, you bothered to smile,
When I was restless, you listened awhile.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

On Eagle's Wings

Refrain

And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you to shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His hand.

Verses

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord,
Who abide in His shadow for life,
Say to the Lord:
"My refuge, my Rock in whom I trust!"

Refrain

The snare of the fowler will never capture you,
And famine will bring you no fear:
Under His wings your refuge,
His faithfulness - your shield.

Refrain

You need not fear the terror of the night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day;
Though thousands fall about you,
Near you it shall not come.

Refrain

For to His angels He's given a command,
To guard you in all of your ways;
Upon their hands they will bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.

Refrain

Text Based on Psalm 91.
Adapted by Michael Jonas, North American Liturgical Resources

Aaronic Blessing

May the Lord bless and keep you.
May the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you.
May the Lord lift His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Recessional Hymn

Congregation

Let Heaven Rejoice

Refrain

Let heaven rejoice and earth be glad; let all creation sing.
Let children proclaim through every land:
“Hosanna to our King!”

Verses

Sound the trumpet into the night;
The day of the Lord is near.
Wake his people, lift your voice,
proclaim it to the world.

Refrain

Rise in splendor, shake off your sleep;
put on your robes of joy
and in the morning you shall see the glory of the Lord.

Refrain

Raise your voices, be not afraid.
Proclaim it in very land.
Christ has died, but he has risen;
He will come again.

THE JEANNE MANCE PLEDGE

That I may be strengthened in my resolve to model my life of duty after that of Jeanne Mance,
the first lay nurse of my beloved Canada.

I place myself in the presence of God and I pledge myself with the help of His grace,
to be faithful to the following ideals:

I will be true to the practice of religion,
which is the inspiration of my noble vocation,
and while administering to the body,
will serve the soul
by observing the principle of right ethics and nursing honour.

I will be devoted to the profession that is mine,
obeying the physician
within the sphere of his authority and I will make my work a labour of love
rather than of profit,
whenever the service of God or country require it of me.

Today also serves as our Annual General Meeting.*

*Last year, all plans were complete & ready to go thanks to the hard work of our Executive members. We were very disappointed by the last minute cancellation.
However there is always a Plan B.*

Many classes made alternate arrangements to gather & celebrate together – an inspiring display of resilience & friendship.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We now have 380 active Alumnae members.

Throughout the year, our Executive volunteers its time & energy to maintain the sense of community & camaraderie. Through our newsletter, archives & events such as Reunion Day happen.

We strive to keep our members connected & engaged.

Last year we purchased mannequins to showcase uniforms from different eras in the display case in the front foyer of St Joseph's Hospital, Charlton campus.

We continue to maintain & organize archival materials that have been donated to us, preserving the history of our School of Nursing & its graduates. Over the past few years, we have also presented archival displays at St Joseph's Hospital during Nurses Week. They have been well received by staff & visitors.

This year we made donations to St. Joseph's Villa for patient care, Margaret's Place Hospice in Dundas, & the lunch program at St. Margaret Mary Parish.

We also supported the hurricane relief efforts in Jamaica through the Sisters of St. Joseph, recognizing the dedicated mission work of Sister Ann Marshall, class of 1956 who served there for 18 years.

According to our Constitution, all but 2 members of the Executive have completed their 2 year terms. There is an "Expression of Interest" form available at the membership table if you are interested in becoming involved.

A financial report will not be given today during the AGM. Any active member wishing to receive a copy of the Treasurer's Annual Financial Report may submit a written request & the report will be made available.

Please visit our website, sjsnaa.com for updates, event photos & information about the history of our Association.

Our sincere thanks to Vera Summers Braithwaite '55, Robyn Innes Hill '78, Beverly Vannatter Peck '58, and Veronica Paljusic-Kolody '78 for their generous donations to the Alumnae Association.

Toast to the Alma Mater 2026 Jane Clayson Ross '76

Looking back to September 1974, we will recall being nervous and excited but unsure of what we were embarking on that first day at Fontbonne. I'm sure while the instructors had nursing experience that we did not have, they probably shared similar feelings as we were beginning our training to be nurses in a brand-new program as nursing schools had transitioned to the community colleges.

We had much to learn, beginning with basic skills like hand washing, talking to patients, bed making, bed baths, academics like anatomy and physiology, and biology and psychology etc. and progressing to more advanced skills like medication administering, giving injections, suture removal, catheterizations and many more. We certainly had much to learn as we rotated through various nursing units in the hospital and some in the community at various locations.

Through the first year we gradually gained skills, and times on the units were increased with more patients, culminating at the end of second year working shifts and being incorporated into the nursing teams. Did we really feel ready to be hired as we graduated? Looking back, I know we still had much to learn and experience but that would gradually come as we were hired into future nursing positions.

Graduating in 1976, nursing jobs were scarce and many classmates moved away and many to the States, but there were also some of us who were fortunate to be hired at St. Joe's. Some classmates have maintained friendships over the years but there are many we unfortunately have lost track of.

It is truly amazing to think we graduated 50 years ago. Retirement back then seemed so far off in the future, and now we look back at varied careers and can reminisce at all our experiences. While there were challenges and sadness to deal with of course, I believe we can all look back on rewarding careers knowing we did our best to help patients through their personal health challenges.

I for one, am grateful for the training I received from the teachers at St. Joseph's Campus, in the newly designed program through Mohawk College which helped arm me with the skills and knowledge needed to begin nursing in my chosen field and that continued to develop and strengthen over a long and varied career.

It is a privilege as your class organizer to have been asked to address and toast our Alma Mater. Will all please join me in toasting the class of 1976 as we mark 50 years since graduation.
