Linda Haslam-Stroud graduated as a Registered Nurse from St. Joseph's Campus, Mohawk College, Hamilton, Ontario in 1977. She worked at St. Joseph's Healthcare as a kidney transplant nurse. Linda was involved with ONA for 40 years – 25 years as an ONA member and Bargaining Unit/local leader; then 14 years as President of ONA, representing 65,000 nurses and other Ontario Healthcare workers. Linda worked with compassion and leadership to improve nurses' working lives and that of their patients.

In 2017, Linda was an Alumni of Distinction Award Recipient at Mohawk College and in that same year, received an RNAO Lifetime Achievement Award.

Linda retired from ONA as President on December 31st, 2017. She is a Director for The Duke of Edinburgh's Commonwealth Study Conference which will be held in Canada in 2023.

Linda Haslam, Barbara McCallum

Linda Haslam-Stroud is the President of the Ontario Nurses' Association (ONA) and is a Mohawk College graduate. As ONA President, Linda has been a champion of high-quality patient care and has been at the forefront of the ONA's precedent-setting successes in occupational health and safety, professional practice and human rights and equity.

Distinguished Fellow
